

The Health Law Society
of Rutgers School of Law at Camden

presents

The 2010 Health Law Symposium

"Perspectives on Bioethics and Health Care Reform"

An interactive forum for understanding health law, bioethics and the economic, practical, and societal implications of health care reform.

Thursday, March 25, 2010
4:30 P.M. – 8:15 P.M.

Faculty Lounge, Room E403 (4th Floor East Building)
Rutgers School of Law – Camden
217 North 5th Street
Camden, NJ 08102

Presenters include:

Professor Kimberly Mutcherson
*Associate Professor of Law,
Rutgers Law - Camden*

Mr. Marcus Rayner
Executive Director, New Jersey Lawsuit Reform

Professor Robert Field
Professor of Law and Public Health, Drexel Law

Dr. Joseph Reichman
*President Elect, New Jersey
Medical Society*

Professor Alan Monheit, Ph.D.
Professor of Health Economics, UMDNJ

Michael Weinraub, Esq.
Michael D. Weinraub, P.C.

Moderator

Professor Rand Rosenblatt
Professor of Law, Rutgers Law - Camden

For a complete schedule and an online registration form, visit our web site at:

<http://org.law.rutgers.edu/o-hlaw/symposium.html>

Advance Registration to the symposium includes a dinner buffet, a dessert reception, and a selection of beer and wine. For more information, please contact Mark.Pascua@gmail.com.

Registration for law students is free.

CO-SPONSORED BY:

Rutgers School of Law at Camden

217 North 5th Street
Camden, New Jersey 08102

www.camlaw.rutgers.edu