

BYLAWS ARTICLE II

Membership Categories

Active Member

Any member of the Bar of New Jersey in good standing and residing or practicing in Camden County, upon payment of the annual dues at the time payable, and subscribing to the Bylaws shall, upon approval of the Board of Trustees, become an Active Member. Active Members alone shall participate in and have the right to vote at the meetings of the Association.

Affiliate Member

The Board of Trustees may, from time to time, admit to membership as Affiliate Members, without right to vote at meetings, individuals engaged in paralegal activity, court-appointed personnel and others whose daily and principal activity is with the courts and administration of justice.

Limited Law Student Member

Any law student attending any accredited law school may upon approval by the Board of Trustees be admitted as a Limited Member of the Association, without right to vote at meetings. Upon admission to the New Jersey Bar of such law student, he or she may become an Active Member of the Association upon subscribing to the Bylaws without payment of dues until the expiration of the calendar year of admission to the Bar of New Jersey.

Associate Member

The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, admit to membership such persons not otherwise eligible for membership to be classed as Associate Members.

Faculty Member

Full-time faculty members of any accredited law school may be admitted to membership without right to vote during the period of time that applicants are faculty members of such law school.

Honorary Member

Any member of the Bar may be elected an Honorary Member by two-thirds vote of the Active Members present at any regular meeting or at any special meeting when such action is provided in the notice of the meeting, and shall not be subject to the payment of dues.

Public Sector Member

Any full-time attorney who is employed by an agency of the state, federal, or local government, or employed full-time by a legal services corporation. This category is intended for staff members of the Prosecutor's Office – both state and federal, the Public Defender's Office – both state and federal, other members of the Attorney General's Office and Camden Regional Legal Services, Inc.
